

The Quaker Foundation Dr. William J. and Mae Hurst Jackson Award for Distinguished Teaching at New Philadelphia City Schools

One exceptional New Philadelphia teacher/educator will receive an award of $6,000.00!

The Quaker Foundation is proud to announce the 15th annual Dr. William J. and Mae Hurst Jackson Award for Distinguished Teaching at New Philadelphia City Schools. Funded by the Jackson family, the $6000.00 award is an annual recognition of and incentive for superior teaching in the district.

Eligible teachers/educators must be currently active in the New Philadelphia classroom in grades pre-kindergarten through 12; or have direct day-to-day educational contact with students, and must have taught in the New Philadelphia City Schools for five years or more. Award recipients will be eligible for reconsideration after 10 years.

Nominees will be reviewed by a committee selected by the Quaker Foundation and will be judged on their quality of teaching, impact on students, commitment to the educational process, and pursuit of lifetime learning. The winner will receive the award at the annual Quaker Foundation Recognition Banquet in the spring.

Nominations are now being accepted and should include the name of the teacher and the reason for the nomination. In addition, the name of the person making the nomination and his/her relationship to the teacher should be included. Nominations may be made by anyone and should be mailed to the Jackson Award for Distinguished Teaching, c/o The Quaker Foundation, P.O. Box 627, New Philadelphia, OH 44663. Further information can be obtained online at www.npschools.org or at www.quakerfoundation.org or by phoning 330-343-0100. Deadline for nominations is Monday, January 9, 2017 at 2:00pm.
